

Volunteer Position Description

Position

Teen Advisory Group Member

Supervisor

Amber McNair, Youth Services Librarian

Description

Huntsville Public Library's Teen Advisory Group (TAG) serves in an advisory capacity regarding Library services and materials for teens. The Teen Advisory Group meets monthly to discuss teen collections and programs, plan events, work on content for the Teen page of the Library web site, and more. We enjoy snacks, meet great people and contribute ideas! Members of TAG earn community involvement/volunteer hours by attending meetings as well as preparing for and attending events. Members play a valuable role for the Library and the Huntsville community. Membership also looks great on résumés, as well as job and college/university applications.
